ANTEPRIMA AMARONE 2015: WINE NEWS LIKES VILLA SPINOSA

Here is what to expect from a glass of this vintage: Villa Spinosa among the best ones.

Verona, February 5th 2019.

The 51st edition of "Anteprima Amarone", held at the Palazzo della Gran Guardia in Verona from February 2nd to 4th, is over. This year it was the turn of vintage 2015, which some people have already called the most promising vintage in the last 30 years.

According to Wine News, an online communication agency about wine & food, vintage 2015 represents "the golden period of the Valpolicella, experiencing the new inputs of energy, innovation and sensitivity that the new generations are injecting into the system on one hand and the good climate on the other one, thus giving excellent bases for a memorable vintage". Wine News refers that "a long hot but not dry season, with little but regular rains, has given the vines good regularity and allowed them to bring healthy and concentrated bunches to full maturity." They also write that "the grapes' state of grace due to a combination of ideal climatic conditions taking place during the harvest, lasted even further in the drying lofts, where the berries dried long and slowly, enriching the compositional values of the grapes".

Villa Spinosa was among the 65 wineries enlisted at the tasting arranged by the Consorzio di Tutela Vino della Valpolicella and proposed its Amarone della Valpolicella Classico DOCG 2015. The editor of Wine News has selected this wine among the 10 best ones tasted as "a version not too hot and with smoky notes stands out this version of Amarone. Leather, gooseberry and vegetal notes, accompanied by a sweet note. The mouth is firm and fragrant".

For trade operators willing to get to know the Amarone della Valpolicella Classico DOCG 2015 produced by Villa Spinosa as well as the rest of the range of their Valpolicella wines, the next appointment is at Vinitaly from April 7th to 10th, 2019 - Hall 4, Booth C3.

All wine lovers are welcomed to the Villa Spinosa's on-site wine shop Enoteca in Tinaia, in Jago di Negrar, to discover the winery, taste the wines and buy bottles and gift boxes.

Villa Spinosa is located in Jago di Negrar, at the foot of the Masua hill in a unique backdrop between courtyards and a romantic Italian style garden. They produce: Valpolicella Classico, Valpolicella Classico Superiore "Figàri", Valpolicella Ripasso Classico Superiore "Jago", 'Amarone della Valpolicella Classico, "Albasini", "Guglielmi di Jago", and Recioto della Valpolicella Classico "Francesca Finato Spinosa".
